

To promote research on lipids and other biologically active substances in the areas of chemistry, biochemistry, physiology and clinical medicine, Boehringer Ingelheim endows the Heinrich Wieland Prize. The prize is named after Professor Heinrich Wieland (1877-1957), a Nobel Prize Laureate in chemistry and a leading lipid chemist during the first half of the last century.

The
HEINRICH WIELAND PRIZE

consists of the Heinrich Wieland Medal and a sum of

EUR 50,000

We appreciate applications for the Heinrich Wieland Prize 2009. The work should have been published during the past 10 years. Reprints of relevant articles published in recent years should be submitted as well as manuscripts in press. A summary of not more than two pages in German or English must be attached, describing the relevant results of the applicant's research as well as its experimental bases. Bibliography and a curriculum vitae should also be enclosed.

The prize winner will be selected by the Board of Trustees consisting of the following members:

Prof. Thomas Carell, Munich
Prof. Georg Ertl, Wuerzburg
Prof. Dieter Häussinger, Duesseldorf
Prof. Dieter Hinzen, Ingelheim
Prof. Hans-Georg Joost, Potsdam
Prof. Paul Knochel, Munich
Prof. Hanns Möhler, Zurich
Prof. Konrad Sandhoff, Bonn (Chair)

Applications must be dispatched not later than February 28th, 2009 (including curriculum vitae, reprints and copies of manuscripts).

All material should be sent to the Secretary of the Board of Trustees for the Award of the Heinrich Wieland Prize, Dr Helmut Ensinger, Boehringer Ingelheim GmbH, CDept R&D Coordination, Bingerstr. 173, D 55216 Ingelheim, Germany.

The presentation of the 2009 prize will take place in Munich in autumn 2009.